TUESDAY EVENING, AUG. 23, 1904.

A Wonder of Precocity. Christian Heinecker was born at Lubeck on the 6th of February, 1721. When only ten months old he could repeat every word spoken to him. At rized all the principal events in the Pentateuch. Before he had finished his second year of existence he had learned all the historical parts of both the Old and the New Testament. At the age of three he could reply correctly to all questions put to him regard-ing universal history and geography, and in the same year be learned to speak both Latin and French. In his fourth year he employed his time in studying religions, especially the history of the Christian church. He was not only able to glibly repeat all that he had read, but was also able to reason with considerable of judgment and to give his own opin things in general. The king of Den-mark wished to see this wonderful child, so he was taken to Copenhagen. 'After his return to Lubeck he learned to write and was beginning on the study of music and mathematics; but, his constitution being very weak, he took down and died on June 27, 1725. aged four years, four months and twenty-one days. What a wonderful record for such a short life!

In Abyssinia one method of doing the hair that is adopted by warriors is to stroll into the market place, buy a pound of butter and, putting it upon the top of the hair, stand still while the sun arranges things. When the hair is thus dressed with melted butter the Abyssinian knows that fate cannot or will not touch him. He is a picture of well dressed elegance done in oils. Another style is to tress the hair, and every tress means something. A young warrior with a head of hair untressed is of no account. He has not yet killed a man. When, however, he has done so all his hair is shaved off except enough to make one tress, which is of the same signification as a notch on a pistol stock. After that every man be kills entitles him to add another trees until as a conquering hero of 100 tresses he is a formidable man to try conclusions with.

Crinoline had its origin in a woven fab ic composed of hair and linen (flax) warp; hence the name. This fabric was first used for shoes, then for bonnets, the word being coined in 1830. As this article was costly and did not extend the dress to the desired bulk light steel hoops were fitted with tape upon the bird cage principle. So popular was the crinoline in 1862 that the rolling of the steel developed a great trade in Sheffield, and one firm alone averaged an output of from ten to fifteen tons a week. Several deaths occrinoline killed the fashion, but Dr. Richardson in his "Field of Diseases" gives an instance of a lady escaping from the effects of being struck by lightning by the hoops acting as con-Auctors.

Rearranging the Basis.

"You are charging me $7 a week for board and lodging, Mrs. Irons," said the gray haired person of the name of Harris. "May I ask how you would temize it? What part of it is for board?"

Harris of the Basis.

John Ogden, Willows, Cal., writes: I had Rheumatism in my hand so badly that the joints became stiff and I had not been able to close the hand in two years. A few applications of Hamiles (Gords and I have since had entire use of my hand.

"Five dollars," replied the landlady. "And $2 for my room?"

"Well, if you don't mind, Mrs. Irons," HAMLINS COUGH BALSAM he said, proceeding to square up for another week, "we'll consider hereafter that I'm paying $5 for lodging and $2 for board. It will seem more as if I ere getting the worth of my money."

-Chicago Tribune. Birds That Lay Four Eggs. The spotted sandpiper and killdeen plover and most of the other snipe and plover lay four eggs at a clutch. The eggs are arranged in the nest or on the bare ground with their small ends together, and as they are pyriform in shape they join in to perfection. The eggs of the snipe and plover groups are proportionately exceedingly large for the size of the bird, and the saving of space by this arrangement undoubtedly answers a purpose.

"Yis," said Mrs. Clancy, "Pat and I have parted foriver. I went to the hospital to ax after him. 'I want to see me husband, sez I—'the man that got blowed up.' 'Yez can't see him,' sez the docthor; 'he's under the inflooence of Ann Estheticks.' 'I don't know the lady,' sez I, mighty dignified loike, but if me lawful wedded husband kin not lolke that when he's at dith's door I'll have a divorce from him.'

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Perhaps a Life Saved.

A few months ago I caught a severe cold, having been out in inclement weather, which settled all over me, particularly in the abdomen. I was in almost constant pain. I consulted a physician and took his medicine for a month and without any relief. I then decided I would try your medicine and it was a lucky day for me when I did so. I noticed a change in a few days and felt encouraged to continue taking Wine of Cardui, and my patience was rewarded, for in two weeks my pains had left me and I felt like a new woman."
